Fresh Peppers & Pepper Mash

PLYMPTON FARMS is a family owned modern produce farm in Guyana, South America. State of the art drip irrigation technology and consistent equatorial climate create a perfect environment for growing quality produce 12 months a year.

A vertically integrated producer, Plympton Farms grows, processes, markets and exports the finest scotch bonnet and habanero peppers for the Caribbean and North American markets. Located within 6 degrees of the equator, we are able to produce peppers that consistently score on the high end of their varieties' scoville range.

Plympton Farms offers both top quality fresh peppers and pepper mash and can accommodate requests for specific varietal or color combinations.
